

Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club Annual Awards

Jane Resor Memorial Award and Jane Resor Memorial Award Runner-Up

Criteria:

The Jane Resor Memorial Award is presented annually to a member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club (in good standing) that has strived to advance and challenge his/her skating by participation in competitions and testing and has also set a positive example for other club skaters.

Other qualities possessed by award winners should include:

1. Participates in club activities such as club clinics, club ice, club ice shows, club fund-raisers, club competition and testing as well as representing the club in competitions and testing away from home.
2. Has a constant desire to challenge and improve.
3. Gives help and encouragement to other skaters
4. Exhibits a good attitude, and behavior both on and off the ice.
5. Is self-directed and a hard worker
6. Shows respect for other skaters, skating pros, and ice monitors.
7. Volunteers to help with club activities.
8. When away from home is a good representative of the JHFSC.
9. Demonstrates leadership ability.

The club member that is the runner-up for the Jane Resor Memorial Award is also recognized annually.

Award:

The Jane Resor Memorial Award Winner has his/her name added to a trophy and a plaque that are both prominently displayed at the ice rink. The Jane Resor Memorial Award Runner-up has his/her name added to a plaque that is prominently displayed at the ice rink.

The Junior Skater Award

Criteria:

The Junior Skater Award is presented annually to a member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club (in good standing) that has shown significant accomplishment in his or her skating skills, has participated in club activities, and set a positive example for other club skaters. Only skaters at the Free Skate 1 through Preliminary Free Skate Levels are eligible to receive this award.

Award:

The Junior Skater Award Winner has his/her name added to a plaque that is prominently displayed at the ice rink.

The Skate With Us Award

Criteria:

The Skate With Us Award is presented annually to a member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club (in good standing) that has shown significant accomplishment in his or her skating skills, has participated in club activities, and set a positive example for other club skaters. Only skaters at the Snowplow Sam 1 through Basic 8 Level are eligible to receive this award.

Award:

The Skate With Us Award Winner has his/her name added to a plaque that is prominently displayed at the ice rink.

The Ashley Nowlin Award for Sportsmanship

Criteria:

The Ashley Nowlin Award for Sportsmanship is presented annually to a member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club (in good standing) that has demonstrated outstanding sportsmanship, character, attitude, work-ethic, and support of other skaters during the skating season. In 2004, this award was named the Ashley Nowlin Award for Sportsmanship in memory of Ashley Nowlin. Ashley was a member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club who loved figure skating and worked hard to skate despite her battle with cystic fibrosis. In addition, Ashley was always willing to lend a hand to help the club - everything from working as an assistant coach for our skating school to painting "rat faces" on skaters performing in The Nutcracker on Ice. The Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club honors Ashley's spirit by presenting this award to a deserving skater each year.

Award:

The Ashley Nowlin Award for Sportsmanship has his/her name added to a plaque that is prominently displayed at the ice rink.

The JHFSC President's Award

Criteria:

The President's Award is presented annually to a member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club (in good standing) that has demonstrated outstanding service to the club and the sport of figure skating through extraordinary volunteer efforts, leadership, or other means.

Award:

The President's Award Winner has his/her name added to a plaque that is prominently displayed at the ice rink.

The Lisa McGraw Webster Award for Outstanding Service to Figure Skating in Jackson Hole

Criteria:

The Lisa McGraw Webster Award for Outstanding Service to Figure Skating in Jackson Hole is presented annually to a to a community member who has demonstrated an unusually high level of support for and commitment to figure skating in the Jackson Hole area.

Award:

The Lisa McGraw Webster Award for Outstanding Service to Figure Skating in Jackson Hole Winner has his/her name added to a plaque that is prominently displayed at the ice rink.

The Sherrie Fleuter Award

Criteria:

The Sherrie Fleuter Award is presented annually to the outstanding competitor at the Jackson Hole Invitational. The winner of this award will have skated with an unusually high level excellence in both artistic and freestyle skating at the competition. In addition, the winner should have represented the spirit of figure skating throughout their competition attendance. Any level skater, from any figure skating club, is eligible for this award. Jackson Hole Invitational judges will select the winner of this award at the competition. The winner will be announced on the last day of the competition.

Award:

The Sherrie Fleuter Award Winner receives a trophy and has his/her name and figure skating club added to a crystal and marble trophy that is prominently displayed at the ice rink. The Sherrie Fleuter is named after Sherrie Fleuter, a founding member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club, whose love of figure skating infected our community and brought our club into existence.

The Stacey Findorff Award

Criteria:

The Stacey Findorff Award is presented annually to the outstanding competitor at the Jackson Hole Invitational who is at the Basic Skills through Non-Test level. The winner of this award will have skated with an unusually high level excellence in both artistic and freestyle skating at the competition. In addition, the winner will have represented the spirit of figure skating throughout their competition attendance. Skaters in the Basic Skills through Non-Test Level, from any figure skating club, are eligible for this award. Jackson Hole Invitational judges will select the winner of this award at the competition. The winner will be announced on the last day of the competition.

Award:

The Stacey Findorff Award Winner receives a trophy and has his/her name and figure skating club added to a crystal and marble trophy that is prominently displayed at the ice rink. The Stacey Findorff Award is named after Stacey Findorff, a founding member and past president of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club, who was instrumental in the continuing success of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club.

The Stillwell Award

Criteria:

The Stillwell Award is presented annually to the outstanding showcase competitor at the Jackson Hole Invitational. The winner of this award will have skated a highly entertaining and creative showcase program at the competition. Skaters at any level from any figure skating club are eligible for this award. Jackson Hole Invitational judges will select the winner of this award at the competition. The winner will be announced on the last day of the competition.

Award:

The Stillwell Award Winner receives a trophy and has his/her name and figure skating club added to a crystal and marble trophy that is prominently displayed at the ice rink. The Stillwell Award is named after Morry and Elda Stillwell, who are good friends and supporters of both the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club and US Figure Skating, and share a unparalleled passion for showcase skating events..

The VanNostrand Award

Criteria:

The VanNostrand Award is presented annually to the outstanding out-of-town coach at the Jackson Hole Invitational. The winner of this award will be the coach that has brought the largest number of skaters and/or entries to the Jackson Hole Invitational. Only coaches from out of town are eligible for this award. The winner will be announced on the last day of the competition.

Award:

The VanNostrand Award Winner receives four free nights lodging in Jackson Hole during the next Jackson Hole Invitational. The VanNostrand Award is named after Jim VanNostrand. Jim Van Nostrand was the first figure skating coach in Jackson Hole, Wyoming and the first president of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club. Jim has a passion for figure skating and possesses an unflinching ability to inspire young skaters to get on the ice and have fun.

The Young at Heart Award for Outstanding Achievement in Adult Figure Skating

Criteria:

The Young at Heart Award is presented annually to an adult skating member of the Jackson Hole Figure Skating Club that has strived to advance and challenge his/her skating by participation in lessons, clinics, practices, competitions, testing, and/or performances while also setting a positive example for other club skaters. It was established in the Spring of 2003 by JHFSC adult skaters Kelli Mobeck and Lori Fussell to encourage other adult skaters who are working hard and discovering the joy of adult figure skating. Lori and Kelli named the award in honor of a memorable performance at the 2003 US Adult Figure Skating Championships in which a very inspirational 78 year old skater by the name of Barbara Kelly performed to “Young at Heart” and brought the audience to tears.

Award:

The Young at Heart Award Winner has his/her name added to a trophy and a plaque that are both prominently displayed at the ice rink.